

SAVE THE DATES!

It's almost BABY TALK WEEK in Pinellas County!

 Join us at one or more FREE exciting events ***

To enhance knowledge and skills for engaging with infants to promote brain development and early learning

Co-sponsored through a partnership between USF St. Petersburg & Concerned Organizations for Quality Education for Black Students (COQEBs)

3rd Annual Baby Talk Workshop

FOR: For Parents & Childcare Providers of Infants/Toddlers

St. Petersburg College
Allstate Center
3200 34th Street South,
St. Petersburg, FL

Thursday, February 28, 2013

6:00pm – 8:00pm

5:15pm – Doors open and dinner begins
Licensed Childcare Provided

- Gain skills to get your infant/toddler ready to learn
- Learn about babies' brain development
- Play in a fun hands-on workshop

To learn more: (information tables for agencies available):

Priscilla McFadden,
pmcfadden@jwbpinellas.org,
727-453-5661

Training in EduCaring™ Principles:

Listening to Babies

*FOR: Pinellas County Infant/Toddler
Service & Childcare Providers,
Agency Administrators & Trainers,
& other Infant/Toddler Service Professionals*

USF St. Petersburg
Campus Location TBA, St. Petersburg, FL

Friday, March 1, 2013

9:00am – 4:00pm

8:30am – Registration Begins
(Continental Breakfast Served)

- Nationally-recognized trainers
- Groundbreaking approach
- Enhance caregiver-infant/toddler interactions to promote brain development
- Hands-on workshop
- CEU's may be available (stay tuned)

*Limit 125 Participants
RSVP to reserve seat
(FCFS for remaining seats)*

Liz Jack, emjack@usfsp.edu, 727-515-5891

FOCUSED Training in EduCaring™ Principles: Listening to Babies

FOR: South County Service & Childcare Providers primarily serving African-American families

USF St. Petersburg
Campus Location TBA, St. Petersburg, FL

Saturday, March 2, 2013

9:00am – 12:00pm

8:30am – Registration Begins
(Continental Breakfast Served)

- Nationally-recognized trainers
- Groundbreaking approach
- Enhance front-line providers' skills in working with infants/toddlers and their families
- Learn practical and useful skills to promote brain development
- CEU's may be available (stay tuned)

*Limit 35 Participants
RSVP to reserve seat
(FCFS for remaining seats)*

Liz Jack, emjack@usfsp.edu, 727-515-5891