

USFSP

UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH FLORIDA
ST. PETERSBURG

LIVE UNITED

United Way Suncoast

REGISTER NOW!

It's almost BABY TALK WEEK in Pinellas County!

 Join us at one or more FREE exciting events ***

To enhance knowledge and skills for engaging with infants to promote early brain development and early learning

Sponsored by USF St. Petersburg, United Way Suncoast, St. Petersburg Healthy Start Federal Project & Concerned Organizations for Quality Education for Black Students (COQEBS)

4th Annual Baby Talk Workshop

COQEBS School Readiness Committee designed to address historical educational achievement gaps

FOR: For Parents & Childcare Providers of Infants/Toddlers

Thursday, February 27, 2014

6:00pm – 8:00pm

5pm – Doors open and dinner begins

Licensed Childcare Provided

Gibbs High School Auditorium

850 - 34th Street South,
St. Petersburg, FL

- Gain skills to get your infant/toddler ready to learn
- Learn about infant-directed play
- Play in a fun hands-on workshop
- Resources offered
- In-Service Training Hours

RSVP for Attendees and Children

<http://www.usfsp.edu/fsc/research/baby-talk/>

Delquanda Turner, Juvenile Welfare Board, dturner@jwbpinellas.org, 727-453-5647

Listening to Babies 2014: A Developmental Approach to Discipline

FOR: Pinellas County Infant/Toddler Service & Childcare Providers, Agency Administrators & Trainers, & other Infant/Toddler Service Professionals

Friday, February 28, 2014

9:00am – 4:00pm

8:30am – Registration Begins

(Free Parking & Continental Breakfast Served)

USF St. Petersburg

University Student Center
200-6th Ave So in St. Pete

- Nationally-recognized trainers
- Learn to use routines, interactions and environments to lay a foundation for school-readiness
- CEU's available

Limit 125 Participants

To register or for more information:

<http://www.usfsp.edu/fsc/news-events/>

Liz Jack, emjack@usfsp.edu, 727-515-5891

Listening to Babies 2014

FOCUSED Training for Direct Caregivers: A Developmental Approach to Discipline

FOR: South County Service & Childcare Providers primarily serving African-American families

Saturday, March 1, 2014

9:00am – 12:00pm

8:30am – Registration Begins

(Free Parking & Continental Breakfast Served)

USF St. Petersburg

University Student Center
200-6th Ave So in St. Pete

- Nationally-recognized trainers
- Culturally-informed approach
- Enhance front-line providers' skills to help infants and toddlers learn to self-regulate
- Licensing Board hours available

Limit 35 Participants

To register or for more information:

<http://www.usfsp.edu/fsc/news-events/>

Liz Jack, emjack@usfsp.edu, 727-515-5891